

ADVANCED CONVERSATION CLASS

20 - 25 Nov 23

Watch this video and answer the questions:

<https://youtu.be/oNlu70T6dsQ>

Where was the track meet?

- Perth
- Sydney
- Melbourne

Why did Warren MacDonald have to laugh at his situation?

- He is a masochist.
- He was in an ironic situation.
- He was in a happy situation.

Why did they have to drive around to the other side of Olympic Park?

- Neither of them had access to that entry.
- They weren't allowed to go in there.
- He couldn't access the entry.

What was Warren MacDonald's obstacle?

- turnstiles
- chairs
- stairs

Warren MacDonald could have focused on _____, but instead he picked his battles.

- how he needed to move forward
- how the world wasn't friendly to wheelchairs
- how unfriendly the world was

What does Warren MacDonald suggest to his audience?

- Don't focus on things that you can't change.
- Don't focus on things you can change.
- Don't focus on big goals.

What is the key of perception to overcoming an obstacle?

- Look for the obvious way to move forward.
- Step back, look and find ways to move forward.
- Step back, and give up.

Warren MacDonald could best be described as _____.

- pessimistic
- optimistic
- sympathetic

Now read the article "Why So Many Successful People Are Still Unhappy" and get ready to summarize and discuss it!